

May's Most Wanted: Top 10 Trending Fiction Books

Living Well for Seniors • Goodreads Monthly Trending Series (Memorial Day Edition)

Take this handy cheat sheet with you to the bookstore, library, or use it to instantly download your next great read for the long holiday weekend. Every title listed below is a fresh fiction hit, highly trending on Goodreads, and fully available right now.

BOOK TITLE & AUTHOR	GENRE / STYLE	PERFECT FOR...
Our Perfect Storm by Carley Fortune	Beachy Romance	Lovers of atmospheric, coastal escapes and emotional journeys. Perfect for a long weekend by the water.
The Calamity Club by Kathryn Stockett	Historical Fiction	Readers who appreciate rich, immersive historical community tales and deep book club discussions.
The Anniversary by Alex Finlay	Psychological Thriller	Suspense lovers who want a fast, clever, and cinematic mystery puzzle with a deep emotional core.
Rules for the Summer by Meghan Quinn	Romantic Comedy	Anyone wanting a bright, laugh-out-loud, sunny lake-house escape full of witty banter.
The Things We Never Say by Elizabeth Strout	Literary Fiction	Fans of deeply human, slow-burn, character-driven storytelling exploring ordinary lives.
The One Day You Were My Husband by Rosie Walsh	Emotional Mystery	A gripping, suspenseful ride about love, loss, and hidden truths that keeps you guessing.
Dissection of a Murder by Jo Murray	Courtroom Thriller	Legal suspense fans who want a fast, twisty, unputdownable courtroom drama.
The May House by Jillian Cantor	Family Drama	Anyone who loves beach house settings, complex sister dynamics, and deep family secrets.
The Daisy Chain Flower Shop by Laurie Gilmore	Cozy Fiction	Readers looking for a heartwarming, low-stress, comforting small-town escape.
Caller Unknown by Gillian McAllister	Psychological Mystery	Mystery fans looking for a clever, fast-paced puzzle with high stakes and family secrets.